The month of August had turned into a griddle where the days just lay there and sizzled.

– Sue Monk Kidd

HELLO EVERYONE!

Hello all! I miss everyone so much and cannot wait until we can meet again.

I spoke to Jimmy Chambers about the status of the UK Extension Office building. It is not open, and they do not know when it will be. So I guess we are like other clubs and will not be scheduling meetings for the rest of the year. Hopefully 2021 will be a better year!

If you have paid your BGT dues this year, let us just say you are paid up for 2021. I will try to find out about national dues.

I have enjoyed seeing some of our member's paintings on Facebook. When you finish something, please share it with us.

I hope each of you stays safe and healthy.

Love,

Connie Bolin
President

Roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer
Dust off the sun and moon
and sing a song of cheer
--Nat King Cole

August is ripening grain in the fields blowing hot and sunny, the scent of treeripened peaches, of hot buttered sweet corn on the cob. Vivid dahlias fling huge tousled blossoms through gardens and joe-pye-weed dusts the meadow purple.”
– Jean Hersey

Since we are unable to paint together as a group, we hope you are painting at home, trying out new things or maybe completing some of those unfinished projects. Please share photos of your projects and we will include them in future issues of our newsletter. You can email them to Rose at rose.amburgey@gmail.com.

Jo Carol has been busy making cards – a wonderful way to share her joy in art while keeping in touch with folks! Lovely work, Jo Carol!

Five busy honey bees were resting in the sun.
The first one said, "Let us have some fun."
The second one said,
"Where shall it be?"
The third one said, "In the honey tree."
The fourth one said, "Let's make some honey sweet."
The fifth one said, "With pollen on our feet."
The five little busy bees
sang their buzzing tune,
As they worked in the beehive all that afternoon.
Bzzzzzz! Bzzzzzz! Bzzzzzz!
Bzzzzzz! Bzzzzzz!
--Nursery Rhyme

Mary, Mary, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow? With silver bells, and cockle shells, And pretty maids all in a row.
-- English Nursery Rhyme
